

Kindness

Kindness keeps the world afloat.
It is like a safe and unsinkable boat.
Which can for years to come float.
It is like a personal fortress, a moat.

It costs nothing for you to smile.
And even though sometimes it takes a while.
It melts the snow, it melts the barrier.
It is a good mood the greatest carrier.

Be kind to yourself, planet, strangers, friends.
Do not say it all depends...
When you see the smile on someone's face.
It is time for you to slow down your pace.

Simple thank you and please are the most powerful words.
And they will please not only the greatest lords
Be kind, give the others with pleasure.
As this, on any weights, you can't measure.

Whatever you reap, you will sow.
And you can search high and low.
For goodness sake be kind.
Give what you can, they won't mind.
